ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of May 2005, this Court having entered an order on April 22, 2005 (the "Order");

And the Order noting that on August 30, 2004 an order was entered in In re Charles Havey, Bankr. No. 04-31305, finding that he and his wife Rosemary Havey had been barred from filing bankruptcy for 180 days in Rosemary Harvey's case, no. 03-38355;

And the August 30, 2004 Order permanently barring Charles Havey from filing a bankruptcy petition and providing that any filing in violation of the Order would not stay any act against him or his property;

And the Order further noting that once again notwithstanding the extant court order, Charles and Rosemary Havey have filed their 5th bankruptcy case on April 14, 2005;

And as a result, the Order dismissed this bankruptcy case is as it was filed by a person permanently barred from filing;

And the Order further directing that Rosemary Havey appear at a hearing to show cause why she should not also be permanently barred from filing further bankruptcy cases;

And the Order further stating that her failure to appear will result in entry of an order barring Rosemary Havey from future bankruptcy filings;

And Rosemary Havey failing to appearing at the hearing on May 9, 2005;

It is hereby ORDERED that the dismissal order entered in this case on April 22, 2005 is amended to provide that Rosemary Havey is permanently barred from filing any future bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 109(g)(1);

And it is further ORDERED that should she thereafter file a bankruptcy petition, the Clerk is directed not to accept it (as he is directed not to accept any further petition filed by Charles Havey).
